Dear RBA Board of Directors,

On behalf of Vantiva (formerly known as Technicolor, a full member who adopted the Code in 2014) and in support of our continuing RBA membership, I am writing to reaffirm the company's commitment to supporting the RBA's mission, vision, bylaws, membership requirements and the Code of Conduct. In addition, our company is committed to meeting all the requirements of membership as outlined in the Membership Compliance Program.

Vantiva fully supports the vision and mission of the RBA by adopting its Code of Conduct within its global Connected Home operations for Electronics Manufacturing and Information and Communications Technology (ICT).

Vision: Through the application of high standards, we can create better social, economic, and environmental outcomes for all those involved in the electronics manufacturing and ICT supply chains. This includes increased efficiency and productivity for customers and suppliers, improved conditions for workers, economic develop, and a cleaner environment for local communities.

Mission: To deliver these benefits through a shared approach to implementing the RBA Code of Conduct. This approach will reduce duplication, focus efforts on positive social and environmental change, build supply chain capability in social responsibility, and employ a process that solicits feedback from stakeholders.

The adoption of the RBA Code and its principles reflects Vantiva's continuing commitment to recognize transparent and external codes of conduct as an element in Vantiva's long-term plan to manage and to improve is sustainability regarding operations, supply chain, and sub-contracting in the Electronics manufacturing and ICT sector.

Wherever commercially possible, Vantiva will seek to internally adopt the RBA approach and tools in practical ways, in the spirit of the industry's common goals. Externally, we will encourage and support our first-tier suppliers to do the same.

We look forward to working together with industry, and by aligning with other RBA members, continue to promote continuous improvement and implementation of the RBA Code in the global supply chain.

Sincerely,

Luis MARTINEZ-AMAGO
Chief Executive Officer
